MESSRS. AUSTIN AND DEMPSEY, of the Montezuma Station, visited Florence with their wives on Saturday last. Mr. Austin has now gone to San Francisco for the purpose of accompanying his mother this far on her journey home. Mrs. Austin, (the elder) came to Arizona about a year ago with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Lord; since Mrs. Lord left, Mrs. Austin has been stopping with her son Fred. Her advanced years and ill health made it necessary for her son to accompany her to San Francisco, and unless her condition is greatly improved Mrs. Dr. Lord will come on from New York to meet her mother in San Francisco and accompany her home. The many friends of Mrs. Austin and her family, wish her a safe journey and improved health that she may yet enjoy many years of comfort in her pleasant eastern home. Mrs. Fred Austin will visit friends in Phenix during the absence of her husband.
MR. WHITAKER, our clever wheelwright, met with a very severe accident on Tuesday last. He was out driving with his spirited team and was about to cross an aqueduct in the upper part of town, when one of his horses sprang across the aqueduct with one leap, throwing Mr. Whitaker forward between the horses. In this position he was kicked and stepped on by the horses and finally the wheel came over his neck. His injuries were very serious, but we are pleased to learn not dangerous. He is now able to learn and will soon be well enough to resume work.
JUDGE ANDERSON returned from the Picket Post and vicinity on Saturday. The Judge is a solid man, both a gentleman and a lawyer whose integrity is unimpeachable. To speak ill of him is to insult the whole of Pinal county. He informs us that Picket Post is improving in every particular; mining interests are being pushed ahead with great avidity; the public school at that place has closed for the summer.
THE delightful fragrance of new mown hay was wafted to and fro on the breezes yesterday, and on investigating the source from whence issued this grateful perfume, we found that Messrs. Sharpe & Vernoy had been laying in a large supply of an excellent fresh hay at the O. K. Corral. Stock receive the best of care when left with the proprietors of the O. K. Corral.
MR. JOHN MILLER, the shoring proprietor of the Florence tin shop has moved into Mr. Simpson's new building on Main street, where he is well prepared to do all kinds of job work in his line. Mr. Miller is daily expecting a large invoice of stoves and tinware direct from San Francisco, and his stock will always be kept up to suit the market.
PETER WILL is putting up a large beer cellar at his brewery on Main street. The walls are two feet thick and of heavy masonry. Over the cellar Peter intends to have a spacious store-room. This will make the brewery quite complete. The garden is doing well, so is the proprietor.
ARTICLES of INCORPORATION of the Lewis Consolidated Silver Mining Company were filed in our County Recorder's office on last Monday. Capital stock $5,000,000. The present Directors are J. O. B. Gunn, J. W. Pew, W. H. Booth and W. L. Hopkins of San Francisco, and Dr. Binnet of Pinal county.
J. COLLINGWOOD & Co., received yesterday per train of Daguerre, 46,294 pounds of new goods, groceries, dry goods, hardware, tools for farmers, carpenters, and a great variety of such articles as are needed in a house, ranch and camp.
C. FEILLER & Co., have received another large supply of wines, liquors, cigars, etc. They came by Daguerre's train yesterday. Call for samples at the One ELL Bar opposite the Telegraph Office.
THE Elliot House, the oldest hotel in Florence, has passed under the excellent management of C. Billeke. Road their new advertisement, and go down and get a square feed.
MISS SOPHIE HUDSON of Tucson, is visiting friends in Florence.

THE water supply prayed for in our last issue has been obtained. Mr. Holland agrees to furnish gratuitously all the water necessary for general use in the town, which is indeed generous on the part of Mr. Holland, and the water holds out the Holland ditches is about half a mile above town, and from there the water is brought to the head of Main street, where two large conduits or races are built across the Alamo Amador Ditch. The water is run through these, and then distributed generally throughout the town. Messrs. Dorsey and Loss were prime movers in this matter, and deserve a vote of thanks for their interest in the superintending and execution of the work.
FLORENCE has many citizens who are full of push and zeal. Mr. Will, of the brewery, is not content with his improvements at home, but has concluded to extend his business at the Picket Post. Last Saturday he sent out a large load of material, boilers, vats, etc., and by this time the boys of the Pioneer District are testing the quality of the new beer. Mr. Backhausen is to have charge of the business at the Picket Post, and under his management, success and good beer are almost certain. Mr. Will deserves much credit for his energy, etc., like every other live man in Arizona, is reaching out, and establishing a precedence and a permanency.
COL. J. H. STOTT, arrived in town on Wednesday morning, and will leave for the Pima Agency Saturday morning, whether he goes to pay off the employees and other agency indebtedness.
J. P. CLUM and wife went to Tucson on Friday's coach, and returned on Wednesday morning after a most enjoyable visit.
Dick Rice's Death.
The story of Dick Rice's death is very sad and very peculiar. Until very recently Rice was a resident of White Pine county, Nevada, where he had the reputation of an industrious, honest, and peaceable man. Some weeks ago Rice left the White Pine district for Arizona, with a good team and $1000 of hard-earned cash. En route he fell in with two strangers drifting, like himself, toward the unexplored wastes of the South. The trio journeyed on together. When near the Village of Hackberry, Arizona, they camped. One of Rice's new-found companions went to Hackberry, got into a difficulty, killed a man, and started for the little camp, pursued by a howling mob eager to avenge the death of the dead man. Knowing nothing of the cause of the trouble, for there was no time for explanation—Rice and the man who remained with him in the camp resolved on general principles to defend their companion. It was a hard fight, but a short one. The mob was too strong for the travelers. Rice's companions were killed. Rice was captured. The crowd were enraged and bloodthirsty. They listened to no explanations. They strung him up as if he had been a dog. This a generous, brave, and really noble man was murdered, and the world knows of one innocent victim of mob violence, at least—St. Louis Republican.
Miners' Meeting.
EDITOR CITIZEN: A meeting of the miners of Pioneer District was held on Saturday, April 27, at Picket Post. D. H. Taft was duly elected president and H. DeGroot, secretary.
On motion of Judge Reymert it was determined to effect a district organization. A committee of five was then elected to draft a code of laws and report at the next meeting. The secretary was instructed to send a copy of the proceedings to THE ARIZONA CITIZEN for publication, and the meeting then adjourned to meet again at the same place at 2 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, May 11.

All that was mortal of one of Arizona's most illustrious and well-beloved citizens was this afternoon laid away in the grave. The funeral cortege was one of the largest ever witnessed in Arizona. The services, at the Marine Street church, were short, but impressive. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. A. Merrill, pastor of the Presbyterian church.
The funeral of the late James S. Giles took place at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.—Enterprise, April 27.
NOAH W. BERNARD has been appointed postmaster at Arivaca, Pima county; James T. Woods, Brigham City, Yavapai county; W. H. Benton, Picket Post, Pinal county; and J. E. Saloman, Salmonville, Pima county.
